Flint, Michigan

Pastor DeQuan D. Ford is the esteemed Pastor of the House of Prayer Missionary Baptist Church in Flint, Michigan. His passion for ministry began at a young age, and he started preaching at 16 under the guidance of Pastor Camel at New Birth Missionary Baptist Church in Saginaw, MI.

On October 8, 2006, Pastor Ford delivered his first public sermon, marking a pivotal moment in his calling. He was formally ordained on December 5, 2010. Pastor Ford's educational background includes graduating from Buena Vista High School in Saginaw, Michigan, in 2007. He attended Delta College and later transferred to Spring Arbor University.

In 2012, Pastor Ford married his beloved wife, Lady Erica Ford, and they have been blessed with three beautiful children: Mark, MarQuan, and Gabrielle. Pastor Ford continued his theological studies at Grace Bible College, pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Theology and Pastoral Leadership. In 2018, he was elected Pastor of Zion Valley Baptist Church in Saginaw, Michigan. During the pandemic, Pastor Ford initiated a weekly prayer call, which has grown in popularity and continues to inspire and uplift participants every Wednesday and Sunday.

On September 15, 2024, Pastor Ford was called as the 4th Pastor of the House of Prayer Missionary Baptist Church in Flint, Michigan. Under his leadership, the church remains committed to a spirit-filled environment where prayer, praise, and people are prioritized.

Pastor Ford's ministry is characterized by his inspiring messages, encouraging words, and passion for teaching God's Word. His mantra, "There is always victory in the valley," resonates with all who encounter Him

This is my mission, this is my prayer Helping the needy, everywhere. This is my mission, this is my prayer Helping the needy, everywhere.

Remembering others, whenever I pray, Looking to Jesus, he is the way.

The Missionary Society here at Second Baptist Church was organized in 1900, with Mrs. Wells as the first President. After the passing of Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Ehnan Johnson was elected President. Followed by Mrs. Margaret Morris. Mrs. Sarah Toler was elected as president during the pastorate of Elder Cromwell. Mrs. Beatrice Burnett was then elected under the pastorate of Rev. F. A. Williams.

Mrs. Florence Fann was the next President, and under her leadership the Young People's Department was organized. The Red Circle had as their leader, Mrs. Davenport. The Sunshine Band, Mrs. Serene V. Casler.

The Missionary Society became affiliated with the Council of Churches under the leadership of Mrs. Florence Fann and Mrs. Serene V. Casler. Mrs. Hazel Green was elected President, with Mrs. Ledora Tanner as Vice President, all under the pastorate of Rev. Garther Roberson, Sr. The Society grew spiritually and financially.

Mrs. Hazel Green was elected President of the Metropolitan District Association and Mrs. Ledora Tanner was then elected President. Mrs. Robena Blakely, Vice President and Mrs. Estella Williams was Directress of the Young People's Department followed by Mrs. Bertha Taylor, Mrs. Effie Taylor, and Mrs. Joyce Richardson.

During the 1950's (5) circles were organized: Margaret Morris Circle, Addie Roberson Circle, Mollie Carr Circle, Addie Murray Circle and Sarah Toler Circle.

Mrs. Tanner served as President until her health failed. Mrs. Leona Babb, was elected President; Mrs. Myrtis Stinson, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Marlon Perkins, 2nd Vice President.

Rev. Garther Roberson, Sr. passed December 4, 1955, and Rev. Anthony Robinson was elected Pastor in 1956. Rev. Booker T. Hopkins was elected Pastor November 5, 1960.

The Missionary society was then reorganized and Mrs. Leona Babb was reelected President. Mrs. Ervene Odum, was elected as 1st Vice President and Mrs. Ezzie Rutledge, 2nd Vice President. Two new circles were organized, the Burton Green and the Ruth Circle.

In 1977, Mrs. Leona Babb who was faithful through the years, giving her spiritual and untiring service, declined the presidency for 1978 after serving twenty-four years. She felt it would be a challenge for some of the younger women of the church. Mrs. Effie Taylor another faithful worker in the church was elected President. Mrs. Ezzie Rutledge, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Mildred Witherspoon; 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Leona Babb was elected President Emeritus by the church.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Effie Taylor and the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Booker T. Hopkins the Young People's Department was reorganized. Mrs. Mary Rosa Huff and Mrs. Mildred Witherspoon served as leaders of the Red Circle. Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mrs. Gwendolyn Aplin served as leaders of the Sunshine Band.

Sister Taylor served faithfully from 1978-1986. She was then selected as President of the Huron Valley Association Women's Auxiliary. Sister Ezzie Rutledge was then selected as President after serving as 1st Vice President for seventeen years.

In 1987, Sister Helen Love was elected 1st Vice President. In October 1988, Sister Barbara Haddon was elected 2nd Vice President.

In 1988, Deacon Eugene T. Love was elected as assistant teacher to teach our lessons. He loved the work of Missions and was always ready to assist the teacher, Sister Sadie Taylor, as requested. He served faithfully until he was called from his earthly labor, March 30, 1993.

The Missionary Society has been supportive of the church by sponsoring a program giving $1,000.00 annually to the Building Fund.

Two new circles were then added to our Missionary Society: the Hannah Circle and the Deborah Circle.

In 1993, Mrs. Ezzie Rutledge resigned as President. Mrs. Helen Love was elected President: Mrs. Barbara Haddon, 1st Vice President; and Mrs. Mildred Witherspoon, 2nd Vice President.

In 1995, Rev. Dr. Booker T. Hopkins, Sr. was called home to rest. In June of 1995, Mrs. Barbara Haddon, who served as 1st Vice President, relocated to Florida. In 1996, this vacancy was filled by Mrs. Marzella Nolen. In January 1996, Rev. Joseph Hopkins was elected Pastor and in April 1997, Mrs. Helen Love resigned the presidency. Mrs. Dorothy Hughes was elected President in April 1997. Mrs. Marzella Nolen, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Mildred Witherspoon, 2nd Vice President. In December of 1997, Rev. Michael T. Williams was elected as the Pastor of Second Baptist Church. The Lydia Circle was formed under the presidency of Mrs. Dorothy Hughes.

As we approached the new millennium, the Missionary Society elected as President, Ms. Mattie Odessa Smith. Mrs. Marzella Nolen continued to serve as 1st Vice President and Mrs. Heidi Jones, 2nd Vice President. Rev. James H. Brooks was elected as pastor of Second Baptist Church in March of 2000. With the Lydia Circle no longer functioning, The Young Women's League was formed with Sis. Kissimmee Reeves as Circle Leader. The Missionary Society had established regular visitations to the Heartland, Bortz, Whitehall, and Superior Woods nursing homes.

In 2009, Rev. Van C. Williams was elected Pastor and the Missionary Society changed it's name to the Mission Ministry as Second entered into The Year of Coronation. With Sis. Smith resignation as president in July 2010, Sis. Marzella Nolen became and is currently the President of the Mission Ministry.

Under the leadership of Pastor George W. Waddles, Jr., elected as pastor in 2014, the Mission Ministry still spearheads visitations with regular worship services held at The Villa at Parkridge, formerly Bortz, on first Saturdays of each month through the Mission Outreach Services Teams (M.O.S.T.). You are welcome to come join in with them.

In working with other community organizations, they have: rendered services to the Corner Health Center in Ypsilanti volunteering as coat checkers during their annual fundraiser; donated food and served families at the Ronald McDonald House in Ann Arbor; provided donations to the Huron Valley Women's Towel Drive for the Women's Shelter; and dressed dolls annually for the Salvation Army. This commitment is also visible as the Mission Ministry embraces Pastor Waddles outreach premise "that ministry is not locked within these walls, but is launched from them," the Mission Ministry provided Christmas gifts to the nursing home; sponsored a Harvest Gathering, which provided fruit baskets and food for seniors and families in need; sponsored a Fashion Share held in May of each year; purchased Christmas gifts for the Angel Tree; and sponsored, as well as supported, a PraiseFest for our youth.

Lastly, the Mission Ministry plays a key role in the larger work of our denomination on the district, state and national levels by providing monetary aid and collecting needed items for the work of Foreign Mission.

Though our name has changed, we still believe in the concept that Jesus taught in Matthew 28:19-20. "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even until the end of the world. Amen."

This year when Mellisa destroyed Jamaica, Second Baptist joined with Wolverine State by sending items to Jamaica. We sent underwear for both men and women, socks, and toiletries. We continue to support both home and foreign mission.

Our officers for 2026: president, Marzella Nolen - vice-president, Odessa Smith - secretary, Ethel Walker - treasurer, Bertha Mack, - teachers, Vivian Hawkins, Odessa Smith, Mildred Williams, and Ruby Washington.
